 - COVID Update:
 - IMS had great attendance for remote learning. The teachers and students were more prepared than in Mar-Jun 2020.
 - As of Jan 12/21 there are no reported COVID cases at the Innisfail Campus.
 - There is a Board meeting on Jan 13/21
 - Principals and Associate Super Intendents have been making the contact tracing calls to parents/students effected by COVID.
 - Masks are still required in all common areas. Once students are seated and facing forward, teachers may allow them to remove their masks in the classrooms.
 - During remote learning 110 Chromebooks were leant to students – 102 have been returned.
 - There are currently no ongoing extracurricular activities – Art/Chess/Outdoor clubs are paused
 - IMS is considering having the grade 7 teachers teach options to the grade 7 students and grade 8 teachers teach options to the grade 8 students to reduce contact between the grades.
 - Mr. Peters & Mrs. Schaefer are attempting to spend only 15 mins at a time in classrooms
