    - Red Days:
      - Board is discussing the possibility of sending a notification of a potential “red day” to parents the night before by 6:00 PM
      - Board is discussing online learning/Google Classroom expectations during a “red day”
      - During the February “red days” online attendance was about 40%.
    - COVID Update:
      - Badminton games are a possibility. There are approximately 130 kids interested and 3 gyms available. There can be 9 kids and 1 coach at a time in the gym. The students will only be able to play singles and must remain 3 meters apart.
      - The following clubs are starting/re-starting: Yoga, Chess, Art, Book, Dungeons & Dragons
      - There have been 0 COVID 19 transmission cases in our school
    - Subway Day was a success
    - In June, the Grade 8 students may be able to start using the high school cafeteria. IMS students and IHS students will be staggered (IMS students will not be in the area at the same time as the IHS students).
    - IMS/IHS staff will be starting to prepare the Grade 8 students for their transition to Grade 9.
    - Remote learning will be not be continuing in the 2021/2022 school year.
    - Parent Teacher Interviews are on March 17 & 18 via Zoom or phone. There are still a lot of appointments available for grade 7 & 8 parents/students.
    - IMS may resume hot lunches in May. Dana Schaefer is looking into healthyhunger.ca to facilitate this.
